Reflections of His Life

Quincy Allis Bell (AKA – “Fat Daddy”) was born in Richmond, California on June 10, 1952 to proud parents, Alexander Bell Jr. and Samella Thomas.

Quincy was from a large family (8 sisters and 7 brothers). He was his mother’s youngest child. He had a close bond with his mother and was most definitely known for being a “Mama’s Boy”. Quincy received Christ at an early age. Quincy received his education in the Richmond Unified School District. He graduated from Gompers High School in 1971.

Quincy was a quiet man with an easygoing spirit. No matter how tough times got he never complained. Although he had various construction jobs and worked at Fairchild in San Rafael, he was known for being quite the handyman. and mostly known as the neighborhood mechanic He could build or fix anything and was always willing to lend a hand.

Quincy had a sweet tooth for cakes and candy. During his last days, his last request was a Reese’s Peanut Butter Cup. He had an appreciation for "Old School" Comedians like Richard Prior, Dolomite, and Robin Harris (BE'BE' Kids). He loved R&B and Jazz music. Although Quincy had no known children of his own, he helped to raise or had an impact on all of his nephews and nieces.

Quincy was preceded in death by his Father Alexander Bell Jr.; Mother Samella Thomas; Brothers: Bonny Ward, Roosevelt Thomas, Samuel James Thomas, and Alexander Bell III; Sisters: Lovie Stanley, Chessie Bishop, Irene Irving, and Jellean Evans.

He leaves to cherish his memories his loving sisters and brothers: Julius Thomas (Juanita), Isadora Thomas, Corinthia Bell, and Zona Bell all of Sacramento, California. Jesse Thomas (Brenda), Chester Thomas, and (loving nephew and niece) Anthony and Brenda Fortune all of Richmond, California. Mary Thomas of Fairfield, California, and a host of other nieces and nephews.

Poem

*I cried when you passed away,
I still cry today.
Although I loved you dearly,
I could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard hands at rest.
God broke my heart to prove to me
He only takes the best.*

Appreciation

The family of Quincy Bell wishes to extend their sincere appreciation for the outpouring of love shown during this time of bereavement. Each prayer, card, and act of kindness served as a source of comfort to us. Please continue to pray for our family.

Thank you and may God Bless you!
